MUCH INTEREST TAKEN IN EMPEROR'S VISIT

German Officials Believe It Will Enhance Better Relations Between Nations.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—German officials are anticipating with keen interest the visit of Emperor William to England, according to the London correspondent of the Tribune. Although the visit is to be private in character, it is said to be earnestly hoped that it will contribute toward softening the acerbity, as it is described, of popular British sentiment in regard to Germany and German policy. The Emperor's powers of personal charm are declared to be proverbial and it is a source of not little satisfaction in official circles that he will have the opportunity of exercising them during his visit to Sandringham in conversation with many of the most influential members of the British government.

OBJECT TO ARISTOCRATS.

Union Men Plan Campaign Against Unqualified Artists.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Trades unionism is reported to be planning a campaign on the aristocratic ranks of some of the most successful artists, illustrators and mural painters in this city. Walking delegates of the amalgamated house and sign painters and the lithographers' union are credited with having made the discovery that their fellows have been working in buildings where panels, etc., were decorated by painters unaffiliated and plans are said to be under way for the unionization of the artists and illustrators in particular. Sculptors may be asked to join the ranks.

TWENTY MILLIONS FOR THEATERS.

It is estimated that the American people paid $20,000,000 for its theatrical entertainment last season, and while it may be possible to estimate the amount spent in this way it is impossible to estimate the amount spent annually in search of health. Ocean voyages, change of climate, and many other things are suggested but even these often fail. The stomach is the foundation of good health. If yours is weak or disordered and you suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation, biliousness, nervousness or insomnia, you need Hostetter's Stomach Bitters at once. It is the best medicine in the world for restoring the stomach to its normal condition. Good health is then sure to follow. Try it and be convinced. Avoid substitutes and imitations.
